Quilted Trivet Tutorial

It's been a busy few days. This tutorial is a couple of days later than I had planned, but here it is all finished. I used the scraps I had leftover from the Indian Summer wallhanging I did for the Moda Bake Shop. This trivet is 10" square and it's a great way to use up some of your scraps.

Supplies

Pinwheel Block

2 - 2 7/8" squares dark fabric

2 - 2 7/8" squares light fabric

1st Border: 2 - 1 1/2" x 4 1/2", 2 - 1 1/2" x 6 1/2" light fabrics

2nd Border: 16 - 2 1/2" squares, assorted dark fabrics

Binding: 1 - 2 1/4" strip light fabric

Backing: 14" square coordinating fabric

Instructions

1. Cut the pinwheel squares in half on the diagonal. Place one light and one dark triangle together and sew to make a half square triangle. Repeat for the remaining light and dark triangles. You will have 4 half square triangles.

2. Sew the half square triangles together to form a pinwheel block. See image below for placement. Press and trim if necessary.

3. Take the 1 1/2" x 4" 1st border strips and sew them to the left and right side of the pinwheel block. Press seams toward the borders. Take the 1 1/2" x 6 1/2" strips and sew them to the top and bottom of the pinwheel block. Press.

4. Sew 3 - 2 1/2" squares together to form the left and right side of the 2nd border strip.

5. Sew the above two rows to the left and right side of the pinwheel top. Press seams towards border.

6. Sew 5 - 2 1/2" squares together to form the top and bottom of the 2nd border strip.

7. Sew the above rows to the top and bottom of pinwheel top. Press seams towards border.
Square up the quilt top if necessary.

8. Layer quilt top, batting and backing together. Quilt as desired. Bind using your favorite binding method.
